It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefits they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by all druggists. E. Steinbacher & Co., wholesale agents.

For several years it has become customary to hold services in Trinity Lutheran church at 8 o'clock Christmas morning. Upon inquiry we learn that the service to be held next Monday morning is to be more elaborate and inviting than usual. The church is to be handsomely decorated, and in addition to the regular appropriate sermon by the pastor, the quartette have made unusual preparations to render some excellent Christmas music. A large congregation is always present, but we predict that many others will attend. A new commendable departure will be instituted, that of bringing some gift to be given to the poor.
